For years, Laura has been searching for her sister Sara, who disappeared in the jungles of Congo. Neither the NGO she worked for nor the embassy had any news of her whereabouts, until a photo with Sara's blurred image stolen from a mining town in Eastern Congo appears. Without hesitation, Laura travels to Kinshasa ready to enter the warlords' territory, leaving behind the differences that separated her from her sister, without suspecting that this adventure will take her to the dirtiest, most violent and hidden backroom of the major Western powers.
