Joel Joan is a recognized actor in real life, who plays himself in this series. He is incongruous, inconsistent, intransigent, indecent, impossible, and insatiable.

In the first season of the series he has already burned a lot of bridges and nobody wants to work with him. Nonetheless, he decides to do whatever is necessary to land an important role in a big upcoming film project, stirring up outrageous and off-the-wall, yet entertaining, situations.

In the second season, Joel is offered the possibility of playing a stage role, which is hard to refuse, but he still faces challenges ahead. On stage he finds himself competing with another highly-respected actor, but this time one from the theater world.
