Petra is a young rebel artist who, despite her mother's advice, is trying to meet her father, whose identity has always been hidden from her. Jaume is a famous plastic artist who mistreats everybody around him. Lucas is a humanist photographer who tries to escape his father's long shadow.

The story of these three characters becomes a spiral of evil, family secrets, death and violence. Despite Petra and Lucas' attempts to contain Jaume's anger, resentment and hatred, fate imposes its cruel logic. Only at the end, an unexpected revelation allows Lucas and Petra to find a path to redemption.
