Manu is carrying a heavy mattress in the subway. He has been sharing a nice flat with his childhood friend Rafa for the past two years, but they've begun to go their separate ways. Disturbed by his friend's evasive attitude, Manu has decided to run away and move to a new apartment without telling Rafa. While moving all his belongings on secret subway trips, Manu confronts his doubts and his differences with his friend. If they have matured, their friendship must mature too.
